

Photographs of the progress of the 'Shelter' for the Children of Peace. The gang have worked very hard on this. The window and door frames are now being made by our carpenter. It really is quite fine. It also makes a great temporary church. The new church building has quite a long way to go especially if the season does not turn around. The third photo shows Cathy Lease putting one of the 'beanies' she brought over on a tiny head!

